Their brother, John Murphy, formerly of Barre, is now located in Harvey. Frank was a member of the Barre A. O. H. base ball team.

Rowe Morrison left last night for Chicago, where he will open an office as western representative of the Harrison Granite company, with which concern he has been associated for several years in the Barre and also the New York office. He has been spending the past week at the home of his father, J. B. Morrison of Spaulding street.

Prof. H. H. Horne of the chair of philosophy at Dartmouth college, who delivered the address before the graduating class of Spaulding high school four years ago, has been secured to speak before the class of 1908 at its exercises, which will be held in the opera house on Friday evening, June 12. Prof. Horne is an effective speaker, as those who heard him on his previous visit will attest.

Supt. Mathewson of the public schools announces that Miss Jane U. Clark, who has been supervisor of drawing in the schools at Proctor for the past 4 years, has accepted a similar position in the Barre public schools and will assume her duties at the opening of the next school to succeed Miss Angie Badger, who recently resigned. Miss Clark is a graduate of the Boston Normal Art school.

Among those who passed favorable comment on the new library building at the corner of Washington and Elm streets yesterday was Librarian Smith of the Seattle, Washington, library, who came to Vermont on his way home after a year spent in Germany. Miss Rebecca Wright of Montpelier, who is engaged in cataloging the Barre library books, was formerly employed in the Seattle library and Mr. Smith stopped to pay her a visit. He considered the Barre building a good one.
